Car Slams Into House Then Erupts Into Flames

By Carol Griffin

At 1 a.m. on April 30, Glenwood Fire Company received a call from Nassau County Police Department for an auto accident/car fire on Glen Cove Avenue and University Place in Glen Head. A car traveling south on Glen Cove Avenue crossed over the divide at a curve

Police Say Above Was DWI

The Public Information Office reports the details of a Driving While Intoxicated auto accident that occurred in Glen Head on Thursday, April 30, 2013 at 12:55 A.M.

According to police, Ricardo Medina-Baez, age 41 of 248 East Broadway Long Beach was operating a 2005 Volkswagen southbound on Glen Cove Avenue when the vehicle left the roadway and struck a residence at Glen Cove Avenue and University Place. The home was occupied by a single female resident who was not injured. The defendant was

Glen Cove Volunteers Battle “Working House Fire”

by Carol Griffin

Glen Cove Fire Department sounded a Signal 10, working house fire, at 12:15 p.m., April 27 for a large house on the corner of Landing Road and Rose Avenue in Glen Cove. When firemen arrived the house was covered in smoke from heavy fire on the second floor in the rear of the house that was pushing out of the attic windows.

First on the scene was 3rd Assistant Chief Bob Marino, who took on operations, followed by 2nd Assistant Phil Grella, who took on the interior of the building along with Chief Rodni Leftwich. First Assistant Chief Joe Solomito, manned the command post. Dispatcher Tom Kenary received the initial call.

First due engine was 529 followed by 524. Sea Cliff Hook and Ladder was called to the scene for a second ladder. The first hand line entered the rear of the house where the fire had started and three hand lines were stretched to the upper floors. Locust Valley Fire Department was contacted for a “Fast Team.” During the course of the fire more man-

The Gatsby Era Lives at North Shore Historical Museum in May

The North Shore Historical Museum is pleased to announce its first full exhibit "Abandoned Trunks," costumes and accessories of the Gold Coast era of the North Shore, by Monica Randall, historian, expert on the mansions and fashions of the Gatsby era.

A preview reception with wine and hors d'oeuvres will be held on Friday May 3 at 7pm. Guests are encouraged to wear Flapper or Gold Coast theme costumes.

Many of the gowns in the exhibit are from the 1920's and were worn by ladies of Woolworth Tiffany, Hutton, Woodward, and other wealthy families of the North Shore including the Countess of Bismarck.

The exhibit will officially open on

"Sign" Up to Learn a New Language at Mill Neck Manor

The annual Sign Language Camp for Hearing Kids, hosted by Mill Neck Foundation, Inc., invites children, ages 8 to 16, to learn a new language while engaging in fun camp activities this summer. Two sessions will be held; Session I runs July 8-12 and Session II is July 15-19.

Located on the campus of Mill Neck Manor School for the Deaf on Long Island's North Shore, campers learn sign language while participating in typical camp activities like water games and theme dress-up days. The program is open to children with and without previous sign language knowledge. To ensure an optimal learning experience for each child, placements for campers will be determined by teachers on the first day of camp.

Through a number of activities, games, and arts and crafts, children learn the sign language alphabet and numbers, as well as how to sign various animals, foods, colors, and more. Classes are led by Deaf instructors with hearing teacher assistants. At the end of each week, parents, school staff and Mill Neck students are treated to a special performance where the campers get to show off their new language skills through songs and skits.

Campers will get plenty of practice using their newly-acquired language from their daily interaction with Mill Neck's Deaf students during games, storytelling and lunch breaks. This interaction with Deaf children, as well as with Deaf adults, is an important part of the Sign Camp experience, and often, many campers and Mill Neck students form friendships that extend beyond the summer.

Ms Randall will give a series of lectures during the time when the collection will be on exhibit.

NSHM is open on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Admission to the preview party is $30 for non members and $25 for members. Checks made out to NSHM should be sent to PO Box 217 Glen Cove NY 11542.

For further information call Museum Director Colleen Yoder at 516 801-1191 email director@northshorehistoricalmuseum.org or visit northshorehistoricalmuseum.org.

The weeklong camp is held daily from 8:30 am to 3:30 pm and costs $375 per week for each child. The camp fee includes lunch, tee shirt, arts and crafts and more. Enrollment for this unique learning experience is limited, so reserve a spot today! The deadline for enrollment is June 21. For more information, please contact Tracey Urzi at turzi@millneck.org or Lauren Podstupka at (516) 628-4204 about this fun, enriching summer experience.

Many Thanks...

Senior Day

On Saturday, May 11th, the City of Glen Cove will hold its 7th Annual Senior Recognition Day. All are invited to join seniors and their families for a wonderful celebration in downtown Village Square from 11am to 2:00 pm. (In case of rain, the event will be held at the Glen Cove Senior Center, located at 130 Glen Street.)

In 2007, my administration established this event to recognize the vast contributions made by the senior citizen population over the years and to say thank you to some of the City's most valuable and active participants.

Senior Recognition Day is sponsored by the City of Glen Cove, the Glen Cove Senior Center, the Downtown BID and the City's assisted living and nursing care facilities. The day will provide the opportunity for seniors to visit a wide variety of vendors offering informational and educational services. Afternoon activities will feature a free concert by the Les Stanco Group and the Glen Cove Senior Center's own "Golden Voices" Choral Group. Over one hundred seniors along with their families, friends and neighbors are expected to participate in the activities of the day. All proceeds from this event will benefit the Glen Cove Sage Foundation, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to enhancing services for the senior community.

Our community is fortunate to have such a vibrant and active senior population who are supported by their families, our own Glen Cove Senior Center and the excellent senior living facilities within our community. I am especially pleased to be recognizing this year's honorees. In honor of Senior Day's 7th Annual Celebration, the Senior Day Committee is proud to recognize Judy Imerti with the prestigious "Lifetime Service Award" for her extraordinary contributions over the years. In addition, the 2013 recipient of the Award for Service and Dedication to the Senior Community is Jean Quararolo. They are truly gifts to the City of Glen Cove and I am proud to honor them.

Mother's Day

On Sunday, May 12th, we pause to say thank you to mothers everywhere but most importantly to our own moms. Mother's Day takes on somewhat different meanings in different parts of the world and on different days but here in the good old USA it is a beautiful day of appreciation and thanks that recognizes mothers, motherhood and maternal bonds. Mother's Day is a time of commemoration and celebration, so on this Mother's Day I wish all mothers, grandmothers, potential mothers and all women who care for their families a very special day and say thank you.

To my own mom, my mother-in-law and to my wife, Jane, thank you for the love you show our families, children and grandchildren every day. I am forever grateful to each of you.

Car Slams Into House Then Erupts Into Flames

car/house fire continued from page 1 and smashed into a house on the other side of Glen Cove Avenue. The car broke through the exterior wall of the house and a fire erupted. The car hit the house so hard that the motor flew out of the car. Hearing the noise, the homeowner was awakened and went to a neighbor's house and to call for help.

The police were the first to arrive at the scene and they called Glenwood Fire Company. When Chief Michael Riccardo arrived, he said the driver was laying in the driveway next to the police.

Riccardo saw smoke coming from the house. He ran into the house and checked for people in the house as the bottom apartment was on fire. A fire truck pulled up, and immediately got water on the fire extinguishing it.

A Nassau County ambulance transported the driver to Nassau County Medical Center. Chief Riccardo also called Nassau County Building Department to access the scene because the car was half inside the house.

1st Assistant Chief Paul Ditrano was also present. The first engine to arrive was 521, followed by 533 and the aerial truck. Sea Cliff Fire Department was called for a "Fast Team."

A 'Souper' Effort at Gribbin School

Students at Gribbin Elementary School recently participated in "The Souper Bowl of Caring," the fourth year in a row the school participated in the event. The Souper Bowl is a nationwide food drive that calls on schools, churches, and other organizations to collect non-perishable food items and donate them to a charity of their choice. The event coincides with the NFL's Super Bowl to bring awareness to the needs of food pantries across the countries, which are traditionally depleted following the holiday season. Gribbin School families donated 305 pounds of food over the two-week collection period. The collected food was donated to the food pantry at Saint Rocco's Church in Glen Cove. Pictured are some Gribbin School students with the collected food before it was delivered to the church.

In Support of Sara Jones for North Shore Schools

To The Editor:

I am writing in support of Sara Jones's candidacy for the North Shore School Board. I have known Sara for five years, ever since my daughter entered Sea Cliff School. For the past two years, as co-president of the Sea Cliff PCA, I have seen Sara in action and have been continually impressed by her energy, her level-headedness, and her commitment to the education of our children.

Sara's business background has been extremely helpful to our organization. She has a great way of coming up with solutions. She has automated processes and moved them online to save time and money. Sara has also suggested some simple changes to improve our checks and balances and strengthen our organization. She's committed to transparency, posting minutes and making sure we provide our budgets and other documents online.

Sara has consistently been someone we can count on to get things done. Three years ago, when our former webmaster stepped down, Sara stepped up and took over this job. Sara has worked for several years on the book fair, handling online communications and always finding new ways to improve sales. Through the district nutrition committee, Sara has also worked hard to make sure parents have access to information about the food being served to our children. Two years ago, recognizing that parents of elementary school students all find ourselves with books our children have outgrown, Sara came up with the idea of having a book swap. She recruited a few volunteers and now runs this event each spring, sending kids off for the summer with a pile of books that are new to them.

I was delighted when Sara told me she would be running for school board. She has all the qualities we need in a school board member - intelligence, reflection, experience working both with businesses and schools, a strong work ethic and, most important in my mind, a commitment to working to make the North Shore Schools even better.

I hope you will join me in voting for our district's budget and for Sara Jones on May 21st.

Liz Wezwick

Candidate For NS School Board To The Editor,

I would like to take the opportunity to announce my candidacy for Trustee for the North Shore Board of Education. I have lived in Sea Cliff for 13 years and currently have a kindergartener and fourth grader at Sea Cliff School. Like so many others, one of the main reasons we chose to move to the district was the quality of the schools. Great schools do not simply produce students who score well on standardized exams but rather foster a love of learning, curiosity, and work ethic that contribute to stronger communities and ultimately to a stronger nation.

I believe this is a critical time in public education throughout our nation as we grapple with issues like the impact of high stakes testing and how schools are financed. Locally, the economic challenges are amplified by the LIPA plant closing, and I will bring considerable experience from both the private and public sector to the table. For over a decade, I have been the owner and CEO of a successful national catalog-based company. Previously, I worked as a director of fundraising for Citymeals-on-Wheels, where I was responsible for raising several million dollars in direct mail donations annually and which gave me a significant background in public/private partnerships. These positions have helped me hone my skills in planning, budgeting, and creative problem-solving, and I would like to apply them to the issues now facing our school district.

Throughout my years in the district, I have become involved in a number of local and school organizations. Through this work I have not only developed a set of skills but have had the pleasure of meeting and working with many members of our community. I have served as the treasurer of the Friends of the Sea Cliff Library for four years. At Sea Cliff School, I have been involved with the parent organization through managing their website, creating the annual book swap, and working on committees. I have also served on the district nutrition committee, gaining experience in the complexity of public education regulations and district decision-making.

Despite all the challenges that face us, I believe in the promise of public education. For nearly 200 years, Americans have embraced the idea that a free, public education is the cornerstone of an economic meritocracy and an informed electorate. While we will face difficult decisions in the upcoming years, we must come together to reflect the desires of our community and to reinforce our commitment to maintaining the quality schools that will continue to attract people to our district and strengthen our country.

I ask that you vote on May 21st, to support our district's budget and help elect me to the Board of Education.

Sara Jones

In Support Of Jones Dear North Shore Residents,

I urge you to get out and vote for Sara Jones in the upcoming School Board election. In many ways she is the ideal candidate. She understands effective finance, being the CEO of a successful business. She understands the value of quality education, having graduated cum laude from Princeton University. She understands the educational system, being the wife of a teacher. And she understands and cares deeply for our school district and our kids, being one of the few parents who consistently shows up to school board meetings month in and month out. Sara Jones is my ideal candidate. I hope you will join me in voting for her.

*Sincerely,
Noah Blumenthal*

Former Board Member Endorses George Pombar

To The Editor,

I met George Pombar when I was elected to the North Shore School Board in 2000 and had the privilege to serve with him during my two terms on the Board. During those years, George and I had our agreements and disagreements, but we always maintained a level of mutual respect and civility that is essential in a political setting requiring cooperation and consensus building. George is a man of principle, compassion and moderation who always placed the best interests of our children at the forefront of his thinking and his votes. His background in finance made him an important, if not critical, contributor during annual budget discussions. Whatever the issue, George always found creative ways to maximize benefit and minimize cost. While I believe that a contested election is good for our local politics (uncontested elections can sometimes signify an unhealthy complacency), I am also skeptical of change simply for the sake of change. This election is about the fiscal health of our district and the educational health of our kids. With the stakes this high, I'd rather stick with the proven over the unproven, and I urge you to do the same. Vote for George Pombar on May 21st.

Peter Vollmer

Share The Road

By EMS Chief Matt Venturino

It's spring time and the weather is getting warmer. With this nice weather comes an increased amount of traffic on and around roadways. There's children walking home from school, joggers exercising, bicyclists out riding and residents walking their dogs. More motorcycles are also on the road in addition to the usual cars and trucks.

Its important to be alert and watch out for others while you're driving. Not one group of users own the road. Safety of the roadway is everyones responsibility. By following these tips you can help improve roadway safety and reduce accidents.

Safety Tips for Drivers

1. Look twice for motorcycles when changing lanes.
2. Slow down when passing bicycles in your lane.
3. Leave at least 3 feet of space between your vehicle and a bicycle or pedestrian.
4. Make sure roadway is clear of pedestrians and bicyclists before making a turn.
5. Slow down when driving through neighborhoods and watch for children playing
6. Use caution when going into incoming traffic to pass a bicyclist or pedestrian.

Safety Tips for Pedestrians/Joggers

1. Make yourself visible to drivers. Wear reflective clothing at night.
2. Use crosswalks and pedestrian traffic signals.
3. Don't walk out between 2 parked cars.
4. Make eye contact with drivers. Don't assume they see you.
5. When crossing intersections watch out for vehicles making right-on-reds.

Safety Tips for Bicyclists

1. Never ride against traffic.
2. Ride as near to the right as practicable.
3. Stop at stop signs and red lights.
4. Always wear a helmet and protective gear.
5. Use hand signals.
6. Ride single file.
7. Don't play music in earphones or talk on cell phc
8. Follow lane markings and ride in bike lanes whe
9. Don't needlessly block the road.
10. Use lights and reflective clothing at night.

Name the Celebrity

This is going to be a give-away but I think it is a fitting salute to this lovely, immensely talented former child star who passed away this past month at the age of 91. She was born at Grace Hospital in Winnepeg, Manitoba, Canada on Dec. 4, 1921. She was taken to Hollywood when just a year old and began to sing children's songs as soon as she could talk. By the time she was ten, her parents recognized that she had a definite talent and took her to a singing teacher, leading her to sing on local entertainments. Our celebrity had an older sister, named Edith, who recognized her musical talents at an early age and helped her to take singing lessons at Ralph Thomas Academy.

This led to her discovery by MGM in 1935. She made her first film appearance with Judy Garland in "Every Sunday" (1936). The film was to serve as an extended screen test for the pair as studio executives were questioning the wisdom of having two female singers on the roster. Ultimately, Louis B. Mayer decreed that both girls would be kept, but by the time that the decision was made, her contract had elapsed. She quickly signed to a contract with Universal Studios and made her first feature-length film "Three Smart Girls" with Ray Milland and Binnie Barnes in 1936. The huge success of her films were reported to have saved the studio from bankruptcy. While working at Universal, she started a collaboration with Eddie Cantor's radio show in 1936. This collaboration lasted until 1938 when her heavy studio workload made it imperative for her to discontinue her weekly appearances. In 1938, she received a special Academy Juvenile Award along with Mickey Rooney for their artistic contributions to films. She was truly a magnificent singer!!

If you know our celebrity call us at 516-671-2360 or e-mail:mail@gold-coastgazette.net

Last Week's Celebrity

Speaking of child stars, last week's celebrity, John Agar, was married to Twentieth-Century Fox Studios salvation from their possible 1930's bankruptcy, Shirley Temple. He was her first husband from 1945 until their 1950 divorce. They worked together in "Fort Apache" and "Adventure in Baltimore". Their union produced a daughter, Susan, who later took the surname of her stepfather, Charles Black. Agar's womanizing and drinking supposedly broke the marriage. He remarried in 1951 and had two sons and remained married until his death from emphysema on April 7, 2002, at the age of 81. After his 1950 divorce, he continued in B movies up to his last in 2000, including the 1976 version of "King Kong" with Jeff Bridges and Jessica Lange. According to "Variety" magazine it was the 5th highest grossing film in 1977.

Correct Callers

Callers who knew our celebrity last week were: Josephia Saepia, Roberta Pezza, John Rogalski, Mario Moccia, Will and Babs Hutchins (who traveled with him and his wife Loretta, who he married after S. Temple) and the Tuthill family.

Senior Recognition Day: Call for Vendors

On Saturday, May 11, 2013 the City of Glen Cove will host its 7th Annual Senior Recognition Day in Downtown Village Square. Sponsored by the City of Glen Cove, the Glen Cove Senior Center, the Downtown BID and the City's assisted living and nursing care facilities, the day will provide the opportunity for seniors to visit a wide variety of vendors offering informational and educational services. Over one hundred seniors and their families are expected to participate in the activities of the day. All proceeds from this event will benefit the Glen Cove S.A.G.E. ## Glen Cove Welcomes New Café Owner

Assemblyman Charles Lavine (D-Glen Cove) stopped by Mar le Café in Glen Cove this week to welcome Marlene Flores to the neighborhood. Flores, a native of El Salvador who now lives in Greenvale, was recently named Hispanic Business Owner of the Year by Stony Brook's Small Business Development Center in an event hosted by Bethpage Federal Credit Union. The recognition is earned by Hispanic business owners that have participated in the Small Business Development Center's Hispanic initiative. The gourmet café at 32D Glen Street, which is tucked off the main thoroughfare down a narrow lane, features everything from a regular cup of coffee and coffee drinks, to smoothies, crepes, and baked goods.

Owls visit ASR Catholic School

Students in Miss. Marshall's third grade class at All Saints Regional in Glen Cove got a special treat on Friday, April 19th. The class had been learning about owls all month, so Miss. Marshall arranged to have Mr. Jones from Volunteers for Wildlife come to the classroom and bring a couple of real live owls so the children would have a chance to see them up close and learn even more about them. Mr. Jones arrived at ASR and brought Orlando, a Screech Owl and Marcus, a Great Horned Owl. He talked at length about each owl and why they are now living at The Bailey Arboretum and not able to be back in the wild. He answered all of their questions and it seemed like the kids really enjoyed seeing these magnificent creatures!

Glen Cove Boys & Girls Club Leaders of Today Paving the Way for Leaders of Tomorrow

Suzanne Aral-Boutros has joined the board of the Glen Cove Boys & Girls Club, a cornerstone of the Glen Cove community proudly serving and providing a safe haven for neighborhood children for almost 110 years. Mrs. Aral-Boutros is one of 28 board members leading by example for the Club's 700 members including January Youths of the Month, Katie Juarez, 8 and Michael McGuire, 13.

Katie Juarez, 8, is a second grader at the Gribbin School who aspires to become a professional swimmer and compete in the Olympics for a gold medal. Katie has been a member of the Glen Cove Boys & Girls Club for one year and enjoys cooking, playing basketball and billiards. Though Katie has been a member for a relatively short time, Katie finds solace in the Club saying, "The Club is a safe place where I can play basketball and pool with friends and also be able to get help with my homework." Katie was recognized as Junior Youth of the Month because of her outstanding conduct during the month of January.

Michael McGuire 13, a teen member and an eight-grader at Finley Middle School, was recognized as Senior Youth of the Month for the month of January. Michael has a deep appreciation for buildings and skyscrapers. Michael plans on becoming an architect and looks forward to adding his own signature structural designs to the New York

City landscape. Michael has been a member of the Club for a year and a half and likes to play soccer, basketball and ping pong. When asked what the Club means to him, Michael replied, "I'm able to get all my homework done at the Club and I love playing all the different sports they offer in the gym."

"I'm thrilled to be a part of this exemplary board and it is even more rewarding for me when you see kids like Katie and Michael and hear about their goals and aspirations. This is what this Club is all about, providing kids with a safe haven where they can dare to dream and be given the tools and confidence to turn those dreams into a reality," said Mrs. Aral-Boutros.

Suzanne Aral-Boutros is an exceptional role model for Club members to follow. Mrs. Boutros, who owns the Suzanne Aral-Boutros Agency at State Farm, has been a pillar of the Glen Cove/Sea Cliff community for more than 40 years. Mrs. Aral-Boutros is also a member of SWAAT – State Farm Women Agents Are There, a community outreach service. Mrs. Aral-Boutros, along with other members of SWAAT, provided scholarships for youths attending the Club's summer programs. In addition to her seat on the Glen Cove Boys & Girls Club board, Mrs. Aral-Boutros is also involved in Pre Cana at St. Dominic's Church in Oyster Bay and is especially passionate about mentoring and helping disadvantaged young women.

To learn more about the Glen Cove Boys & Girls Club and how you can donate to the cause, contact Melissa Rhodes, Executive Director at 516-671-8030.

Glen Cove Boys & Girls Club at Lincoln House has been serving the community since 1903 by providing a safe and caring environment that will inspire and enable all young people to realize their full potential as productive and responsible citizens. The Club serves more than 700 youths, ages 6 to 18, in the Glen Cove community with a variety of after school Programs in education, sports and recreation, dance, technology and art, all designed to enrich and enhance learning and build self-esteem. To learn more about Glen Cove Boys & Girls Club and how you can help support the Club, its mission and service to the youth of the Glen Cove community, please call Melissa Rhodes, Executive Director at 516-671-8030 or visit www.glencovebgc.org.

Agency: Board of Appeals,
Village of Sea Cliff
Date: May 21, 2013
Time: 8:00 pm
Place: Village Hall, 300 Sea Cliff
Avenue, Sea Cliff, New York

Subject: Application of Roger Friedman, 11 Circle Way, Sea Cliff to construct a second story addition and enlarge an existing entryway, which requires variances of the following Village Code provisions to maintain existing conditions: (a) 138-506 in that the front yard width is 98.25 feet, where a minimum of 100 feet is required; and (b) 138-511 in that the side yard setback is 8.9 feet, where a minimum of 15 feet is required. The proposed construction also requires variances of the following Village Code sections: (a) 138-514. In that the floor area will be 3,863 square feet, where a minimum of 3,358 square feet is permitted; and (b) 138-517 in that the front entranceway encroaches 0.5 feet into the permitted front yard setback area. Premises are designated as Section 21, Block 222, Lot 456 on the Nassau County Land and Tax Map.

Application of Ronald Doering, 107 12th Avenue, Sea Cliff to construct a rear covered porch addition and patio, which requires variances of the following Village Code provisions to maintain existing conditions: (a) 138-404 in that the lot size is 2,400 square feet, where a minimum of 7,500 square feet is required; (b) 138-406 in that the front line width is 40 feet, where a minimum of 75 feet is required; (c) 138-409 in that the width at the setback line is 40 feet, where a minimum of 75 feet is required; (d) 138-411 in that the side yard setbacks are 5.7 feet and 5.9 feet, where a minimum of 10 feet is required; and (e) 138-412 in that the rear yard is 9.1 feet, where a minimum of 20 feet is required. The proposed addition also requires variances of the following Village Code sections: (a) 138-413.1 in that the rear entranceway encroaches into the height setback ratio plane; (b) 138-416 in that the rear entranceway is 4.1 feet from the rear property line, where a minimum of 5 feet is required; and (c) 138-1102 in that the addition increases a non-conformity where no such increase is permitted. Premises are designated as Section 21, Block 139, Lot 1219 on the Nassau County Land and Tax Map.

Application of Edward and Julia Brennan, 9 Locust Place, Sea Cliff to construct a one story addition, which requires variances of the following Village Code provisions to maintain existing conditions: (a) 138-508 in that the existing front yard setbacks are 16.3 feet and 23.6 feet, where a minimum of 25 feet is required, (b) 138-513 in that the building height is 41.5 feet, where a maximum of 30 feet is permitted, (c) 138-513.1 in that the existing dwelling encroaches into the height-setback ratio plane, (d) 138-516 in that the garage is (i) in a front yard where no such garage is permitted, (ii) 3.3 feet from the side property line, where a minimum of 15 feet is required, and (iii) 699 square feet, where a maximum of 500 feet is permitted, and to create the following conditions: (a) a floor area of 5,024 square feet, where Village Code §138-514.1 provides that the maximum floor area is 4,200 square feet, and (b) increasing a non-conformity where Village Code §138-1102 prohibits such increase. Premises are designated as Section 21, Block 182, Lot 155 on the Nassau County Land and Tax Map.

Application of Christopher and Elizabeth Winchester, 93 LaFayette Avenue, Sea Cliff to construct a 2 story addition and extend a covered porch, which requires variances of the following Village Code provisions to maintain existing conditions: (a) 138-504 in that the lot size is 7,486 square feet, where a minimum of 10,000 square feet is required; (b) 138-506 in that the front property line is 64.45 feet, where a minimum of 100 feet is required; (c) 138-509 in that the width at the setback line is 64.45 feet, where a minimum of 90 feet is required; (d) 138-511 in that a side yard setback is 0.3 feet, where a minimum of 15 feet is required; (e) 138-513 in that the building height is 32.5 feet, where a maximum of 30 feet is permitted; and (f) 138-513.1 in that the dwelling encroaches into eastern height setback ratio plane. The proposed construction also requires variances of the following Village Code sections: (a) 138-513.1 in that the addition will encroach into the western height setback ratio plane; (b) 138-514.1 in that the floor area will be 2,506 square feet, where a maximum of 2,320 square feet is permitted; (c) 138-517 in that the porch extends into the front yard setback beyond the permitted encroachment distance; and (d) 138-1102 in that the construction increases a non-conformity where no such increase is permitted. Premises are designated as Section 21, Block 30.01, Lot 206 on the Nassau County Land and Tax Map.

[Continued] Application of Doug and Karin Barnaby, 404 Littleworth Lane, Sea Cliff, New York to subdivide a lot with an existing non-conforming use into three residential lots and a private roadway, which requires variances of the following Village Code sections: (a) 138-501 and 138-1103 to increase an existing non-conformity of a property and use, where no such increase is permitted; (b) 138-506 to permit a front property line of 92.18 feet on one lot and 25.02 feet on another lot, where the minimum required front property line is 100 feet; (c) 138-509 to permit a lot width of 92.18 feet, where a minimum required width of 100 feet is required; (d) 138-511 to permit a side yard setback of 11 feet, where a minimum of 15 feet is required; (e) 138-512 to permit a rear yard setback of 20 feet, where a minimum of 30 feet is required; (f) 138-1002 and 138-1001(A) in that the required number of off-street parking spaces are not provided; and (g) 138-1007 in that (i) the proposed subdivision exacerbates an existing non-conforming condition by creating a property line with less than the required 4 foot setback, and (ii) the driveway depicted on parcel B exceeds the minimum permitted width of 25 feet. Applicants also appeal the determination of the building department that the proposed subdivision increases a pre-existing non-conformity. Premises are designated as Section 21, Block L1, Lot 306 on the Nassau County Land and Tax Map.

At the said time and place, all interested persons may be heard with respect to the foregoing matters. All relevant documents may be inspected at the office of the Village Clerk, Village Hall, 300 Sea Cliff Avenue, Sea Cliff, New York, during regular business hours.

Any person having a disability which would inhibit attendance at or participating in the hearing should notify the Village Clerk at least three business days prior to the hearing, so that reasonable efforts may be made to facilitate such attendance and participating.

Glen Cove- The Staged Hamptons

Although set in the Hamptons, it is actually Glen Cove that being used for portions of the USA Network hit Show Royal Pains. Trucks and signs for the set have been seen at Prybil Beach in Glen Cove for weeks. According the the show web site the show is about Hank Lawson (Mark Feuerstein), once a rising star in the New York City medical community, Hank found himself out of work, dumped by his fiancée and out of options after a dustup with some hospital honchos. Fed up with Hank's personal pity-party, his younger brother, Evan (Paulo Costanzo), convinced Hank to join him on a last-minute trip to the Hamptons for Memorial Day weekend. When the brothers crashed a party at the home of a Hamptons billionaire and a guest fell critically ill, Hank saved the day. His dramatic medical rescue drew attention from the crowd, and soon Hank's phone started ringing off the hook with patients wanting Hank to make house calls.

By the end of the weekend, Han-kMed was born. With Evan as the company's CFO and the whip-smart, ambitious Divya (Reshma Shetty) as Hank's physician's assistant, Hank becomes the Hamptons' new in-demand Doctor-for-Hire. News travels fast on the East End, especially when it's about a talented young doctor with MacGyver-like skills who makes house calls. But the rich and powerful aren't the only ones seeking out HankMed's services; there are plenty of less well-off locals who need his help, too, and he's more than happy to lend a hand.

As the practice grows and they become more settled in their new lives, the brothers begin to experience growing pains. With their unreliable father Eddie (Henry Winkler) back in their lives, Evan's recent engagement to Paige (Brooke D'Orsay) and Jill (Jill Flint) about to leave Hamptons Heritage, Hank and Evan quickly learn that life in the Hamptons isn't always a walk on the beach.

Glen Head Resident's Story In New Book

Glen Head resident Terri Manzione shared her story titled "Joseph's Wish" which is featured in the new Chicken Soup for the Soul: Raising Kids on the Spectrum.

The 101 personal stories in Chicken Soup for the Soul: Raising Kids on the Spectrum (Chicken Soup for the Soul Publishing, LLC, April 2, 2013, 978-1611599084, $14.95) create a portable support group for parents of children with autism spectrum disorder. They will see pieces of themselves reflected in the stories by other parents and also by people who have been diagnosed with autism and Asperger syndrome. This book also makes it clear that every child on the spectrum is an individual with a unique set of talents and non-neurotypical behaviors.

Terri Manzione graduated St. John's University School of Law. ## Obituaries

Emily G. Gibbs

Emily G. Gibbs passed peacefully on April 29, 2013 of Glen Cove. Beloved wife of the late Dr. Stanley Gibbs. Loving mother of Betsy, Eric and Alan. Cherished grandmother of Simon Sophie, Tyler and Jordan. Outside of being a parent and grandparent, Emily was very involved with the temple serving as President of the Sisterhood and receiving honors for her extraordinary dedication and commitment. She also served as her husband's office manager and assisted Stanley in his lectures throughout the United States, Europe and South Africa. She loved to entertain and always had an open door for anyone who needed a place for the holidays of Passover to Thanksgiving. She will be missed for her cooking and her continued words of encouragement.

Hubert Sharpe

Hubert Sharpe died peacefully at Glengariff Health Care Center on April 5, 2013. Born on the Island of Jamaica, Hubert had resided in Glen Cove for more than 20 years. He was an actor, appearing in a James Bond movie, singer, dance instructor and percussionist. Hubert was a true gentleman and community volunteer. He served at the North Shore Sheltering program for many years and was a faithful member of Glen Cove Christian Church where he played the congas on the worship team.

Survivors include a son in England, a sister in Jamaica and the two people closest to him during his final days, Rita Johnston and Mark Wiesner. He had a multitude of friends in Glen Cove and will be profoundly missed.

A memorial service will be held at 10:15 a.m. Sunday, June 9th, at the Glen Cove Christian Church.

Great Book Guru

- Ann DiPietro

Dear Great Book Guru, I am planning a trip to Italy in the next few weeks- of course, I will be back for all Sea Cliff's wonderful upcoming events: the Landmarks House Tour on May 19, the Memorial Day Parade, and the spectacular Village-wide Garage Sale on June 1- but meanwhile, I would like something to read to begin my Italian immersion . We will be visiting the Amalfi Coast region. Any suggestions? An Amalfi Adventurer

Dear Amalfi Adventurer, We just came back from an amazing vacation planned by our friend Toni Montello, expert on all of Italy! One of the highlights of the trip was our visit to Pompeii and I'm sure you will want to go there too. Robert Harris's POMPEII is a great mood-setter for this excursion. Set in Pompeii 69AD, two days before Vesuvius erupts, the novel gives a fascinating look into the culture, geography, and history of that ill-fated city. It is told from the perspective of a young engineer Attilius who has been sent from Rome to manage the vast aqueducts that provide water for the area. Something is terribly wrong- fish are dying, strange cracks are appearing, the water flow is slowing , and it is his job to find out why. The lavish life style of the rich, the harsh existence of the poor and enslaved, and the political corruption that permeates the society are all recorded, but we alone know that it is all to end within hours. A compelling read!

Speedy's Corner

Glen Cove Junior Baseball/Softball League

Glen Cove Junior Baseball/softball games began their second week with good weather and milder temperatures. Below are results of reported second week games:

MIDGET BOYS

The Hot Rods' offense was too much for the Iron Pigs in a 17-5 win. The Hot Rods shut the door early on the Iron Pigs Friday night on Field Five scoring 10 runs in the first three innings. Hot Rods hitters delivered big hits off Iron Pigs pitching with seven hitters combining for 18 hits , 15 rbi and 15 runs scored.

MIDGET GIRLS

The Bats outmuscled the Sandgnats in a 19-9 win on Field Five this past Saturday. The teams' combined hits were 71 with the Bats contributing 41 hits and 18 rbi by nine different hitters, all singles. The Bats scored five runs in the fifth, breaking the game open on rbi hits by multiple players including Ashley Gonzalez and Ashley Glaviano. The Sandgnats had scored five runs of their own in the third inning.

INTERMEDIATE GIRLS

The Islandia School Supply Mets suffered their first loss last week to the Oyster Bay Miami, 8-6. Both Caroline Baptista and Jennifer Heman had a hit and rbi. Heman fanned three batters in her relief effort. The game was only played through three-and-a-half innings due to time limits and weather. The Mets then returned to their winning ways last Saturdays with a 14-6 victory at the hands of the Grenville Baker Giants. Emma Burke was 3-for-3 with three rbi. Brianna Malvino and Heman were 2-for-3 with Malvino contributing two rbi. Mia Martinez and Reed Weimer had a hit each. Gianna Stanco had a defensive gem in the field and Julia Pascucci-Jiao had great catching for two innings.

Glen Cove Junior Lacrosse Club Week 3 Round Up

By Brian 'Condo' Neice

Glen Cove 3rd and 4th grade 'Wee Knights' lost a tough game against Plainedge this past Sunday by the score 8 - 4. In their first loss of the year, Glen Cove maintained their composure and showed great sportmanship against a team that was committed to the victory. The Knights had a skeleton crew this week but makes no excuses for the loss. The intensity needs to be consistent from the first whistle to the last. If we do that, winning will come. Good defense (poke checking, lifting and good positioning) always help our confidence and gets our offense clicking on all cylinders. Andrew Epifania was one of our horses again yesterday tallying 3 goals and hustled throughout the game. Lukasz Dubick played a solid game at attack and had a goal for Glen Cove and birthday boy, Eammon Doyle, had a great game at midfield. Goalie Nicky Caparella made a bunch of saves in the net.

In 5th and 6th grade action, the Mid Knights travelled to New Hyde Park to do battle. When the dust settled, the boys were on the losing end of a 5 - 4 game. Manning the goal for his first time was Patrick Fallon, who despite being a little shaky at start, buckled down and held NHP scoreless in the second half. The offense is improving as four different players scored, three of the goals off an assist. Starting up the scoring was Syzmon Frye from a pass from Bobby Kiaer. Dylan Anucik, from Thomas Klimasewski and Gabrielle Guevarra, from Sal Guastella were the other assisted goals while Seamus Fallon muscled in an unassisted goal. There were plenty of opportunities that couldn't be capitalized on but despite the loss the fans were entertained and appreciative of the effort that the boys put into the game.

The 7th and 8th grade 'Late Knights' did play. Unfortunately they are living up to their name and did not make the deadline to submit their game update. They too play in Plainedge where rumor has it they lost.

Once again all teams are away next week but will be gearing up for our "Lacrosse Day" being held at the Glen Cove High School Varsity Field on Saturday, May 11th. There's four games scheduled back to back with the first game facing off at noon.

Portledge Varsity Girls Ice Hockey Finish Runners-Up in Women's Ice Hockey League of the Mid Atlantic

Congratulations to the Portledge Girls Ice Hockey team who finished their season as Runners-Up in the Women's Ice Hockey League of the Mid Atlantic. Second place is not usually something that satisfies teams who possess a true competitive nature; however, this accomplishment was seen as a positive by the team. Last year the Lady Panther skaters ended with an overall mark of 5 wins and 13 losses, so they were definitely looking for a revival during the 2012-13 campaign. That is exactly what happened as the still very young squad winged their way to a dramatic victory in the semi-finals of the League Championship Tournament, a heartbreaking loss to longtime rival Morristown Beard in the championship game, and a very respectable overall mark of 10 wins and 7 losses. This solid turnaround is mostly due to the maturation of highly skilled players, and the team's excellent work ethic. Portledge Director of Athletics and Head Coach of Varsity Girls Ice Hockey, Phil Hills, stated, "Due to the exceptional quality of the competition that this team faces every year, I ask a great deal of these girls in terms of effort and commitment, and they deliver." The highlight of the season came in the Championship Tournament semi-final game when the Portledge girls skated past the tournament's hosts from Princeton Day School by a score of 6-1. One of the team's forward lines, made up of sophomores Lindsay Miller (Manhasset) and Payton Matthews (Oyster Bay), and freshman Holly Ackerman (East Rockaway), each scored a goal, while eighth grader Georgia Keogh (Glen Cove), who is the youngest player on the team, dominated the flow of play from her defense position. Portledge then went on to play defending WIHLMA Champion Morristown Beard in the finals. Although the young Portledge team played very well, and definitely made the girls from Mo' Beard earn the hardware, the more experienced team prevailed 2-0 as Portledge was not able to break through their opponent's stiff defense.

This was a successful turn-around season for the only Varsity Girls Hockey team on Long Island, and it sets the program up well for continued success in the future.

Will Kassar to Play at Sacred Heart

Congratulations to Glen Cove High School senior Will Kassar who will attend and play football for Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, CT. Will had an amazing final year as quarterback for the Glen Cove Big Red varsity football team, leading the squad to the playoff semifinals with an 8-2 record while also achieving All-County status. Will (seated, center) is congratulated by (standing, back row) Glen Cove High School Principal Dr. Joseph Hinton, Director of Health, Physical Education and Athletics Denise Kiernan, (seated, L-R) assistant coach Tony Gallo and head coach Pete Kopecky.
