

Sea Cliff Fire Dept. Annual Inspection

By Carol Griffin

Sea Cliff Fire Department held its annual inspection on June 8 at the firehouse. As expected there was a good turnout by the members of the department.

The “Best Appearing” Company was won by the Engine Company. They were also the company that had the best percentage for participation for the year with 71%, as opposed to the Hook and Ladder Company with 66.51%, Enterprise hose Company with 64.86% and the fire Medic Unit with a 49.47%. The Hook & Ladder Company had the most firefighters in line with no less than 100%, the Fire Medic unit had 91.77%, engine Company 88.89% and the Enterprise Hose Company had 86.68%. Each company captain walked off with a trophy for their respective winning company.

Individual firefighter who made 75% or more of calls for 2012 also received recognition. The Charles E. Theurer Award given to a Fire Medic with an outstanding record for the year was given to John Ciampi, III and presented by Theurer’s grandson Ted Kopczynski. Following the formal portion of the Inspection, everyone was invited into the firehouse for a grand buffet.

Victoria Crosby Chosen as Oyster Bay Historical Society Honoree

The Oyster Bay Historical Society has selected Victoria Crosby to receive one of its "2013 Outstanding Advocates for Historic Preservation and Education" Awards at a reception on Tuesday July 9th at 6pm, at the Mansion at the Woodlands, One Southwoods Road, Woodbury, NY with other deserving individuals who have demonstrated a commitment to historic preservation and education on Long Island.

Among her other community involvements, Victoria Crosby is vice president of the North Shore Historical Museum and has been active in fundraising for NSHM for over fifteen years. She was elected to the board of trustees to the Historic Royal Palaces in London, England, which are the Tower of London, Kew Palace, Kensington Palace, Whitehall Palace and Hampton Court Palace. She is an advocate for historical preservation and has written many articles for local newspapers and 25A Magazine.

Proceeds of this important event will benefit the Oyster Bay Historical Society, a not-for-profit organization dedicated to creating a broad public interest in and awareness of the rich and distinctive history of the Town of Oyster Bay, to collect, preserve, and make accessible to everyone artifacts, books, documents, records, photographs, and other materials pertinent to the history and development of Oyster Bay and to stimulate and educate the community through exhibitions, programs, and publications designed to interpret our past, to reflect on our future, and to bring our history to life in the present.

Legendary Songwriter Jimmy Webb Performs at Glen Cove Village Square Plaza

Legendary songwriter Jimmy Webb will perform with special guest Peter Calo when week two of the 2013 Downtown Sounds Concert Series takes place at the Glen Cove Village Square Plaza on July 12 at 7:30 pm. During this unique show, Webb will sing many of the chart-topping songs he has written for other artists and also tell stories about the inspiration behind those songs and the performers who brought them to life.

Webb received his first gold record at the age of 18 and went on to become the youngest inductee into the Songwriters Hall of Fame. He is also the only artist to ever receive Grammy Awards for music, lyrics and orchestration. During a career that has spanned six decades, he has written hits for Donna Summer ("MacArthur Park"), Glen Campbell ("By the Time I Get to Phoenix" and "Galveston"), Linda Ronstadt ("Adios"), Joe Cocker ("The Moon is a Harsh Mistress"), Barbra Streisand ("Didn't We") and Frank Sinatra, who also performed "Didn't We" and other Webb compositions. He has also released 10 solo albums and his latest, Just Across the River, features duets with Billy Joel, Jackson Browne and Willie Nelson. A follow-up CD that features Brian Wilson, Art Garfunkel, David Crosby and Graham Nash is scheduled for a September 2013 release.

Peter Calo is a guitarist, producer, composer and recording artist who has been hailed as a master musician by The Boston Globe. During his career, he has performed/recorded with an all-star cast including Carly Simon, Queen Latifah, Willie Nelson, Hall and Oates, Phil Ramone, Kris Kristofferson and Leonard Bernstein. He has also released five CDs and is currently working on a sixth.

Every Friday night during July and August, the Downtown BID and the City of Glen Cove join forces to bring Downtown Sounds to the Village Square at the intersection of Glen and Bridge Streets. This annual outdoor concert series, which is free to the public, is designed to use music as a promotional tool to boost the local economy. For example, the weekly concerts typically bring 600-1,000 people to the city's streets, which increases patronage of local businesses including many area restaurants. The event has grown substantially since its debut in 1997 and the city now closes School Street due to the overflow crowds. A new feature this year is a second stage upon which alternative acts perform. For example, on July 12, while Webb and Calo are playing on the main stage, Lee Knight will present a Books Alive Interactive Concert for kids. Knight has written over 100 children's songs and her show, which is appropriate for kids of all ages, provides an opportunity for youngsters to be active participants by singing, dancing and acting on stage with costumes, props and puppets.

Downtown Sounds 2013 is presented by Bethpage Federal Credit

Union with additional sponsorship by National Grid, American Community Bank and Men on the Move Moving & Self Storage. The SUNY College at Old Westbury, OWWR Old Westbury Web Radio and OWTW Old Westbury Television, Sahn Ward Coschignano & Baker PLLC, The Glen Cove Printery, Linchitz Medical Wellness and AvalonBay Communities have also provided support for this year's events. Free parking is available at the nearby municipal garage and in the case of rain, the advertised acts will perform at the Wunsch Arts Center at R.M. Finley Middle School on Forest Avenue. ## Chaminade Graduate Leaves Behind Legacy Of Leadership, Excellence And Character Old Brookville's Rocco Signore honored during Graduation Ceremony at the Tilles Center

Graced in a classic white tuxedo and red bow tie, Rocco Signore, a resident of Old Brookville, stood proud under a bright spotlight on the Tilles Center stage -- before 400 classmates and 2,500 guests -- as some of his outstanding high school achievements were announced during the 82nd Annual Chaminade Commencement on June 2.

As a four-year member of the Chaminade honor roll, Signore accepted a special award from Chaminade High School Principal, Brother Joseph Bellizzi, along with the President's Award for Educational Excellence. Signore's list of academic and athletic accomplishments, however, was far too comprehensive to address during this brief, but memorable moment on stage.

"Rocco is one of those young men who stands out among his peers: selfless, charitable, sincere, disciplined," said Brother Thomas Cleary, President, Chaminade High School. "During his four years at Chaminade, he had gained the respect of both the faculty and his peers. Not only an Honor Roll student, Rocco also excelled in athletics and in his activity involvement. He's a great young man who will continue to make us proud!"

A member of the National Honor Society with a four-year GPA of 3.65, Signore also was a top-ranked New York State sprinter who earned multiple CHSAA individual and relay championships over the last four years. The Varsity Track and Field Co-Captain, who helped lead Chaminade to several team titles, ended his track career with seven (7) all-time Chaminade records in nearly every event from the 55 meter dash to the 4x400 relay.

"He led the track team to multiple CHSAA titles and when I say 'led', I mean just that," said Pat Slevin, Signore's sophomore English teacher and Chaminade track coach who is now coaching at Manhattan College. "He led by example; working hard, sacrificing himself for the team, pushing and pulling his teammates along to team titles. He always put the team first and in this day and age, that's rare. For me, there has never been a student I've ever taught or coached at Chaminade who has just 'gotten it' like Rocco."

Earlier this year -- among more than 400 seniors -- Signore was selected as Chaminade's sole recipient of the New York State-sponsored Outstanding Physical Education Award based on achievement of excellence academically, athletically and through physical education testing; and demonstration of leadership, character and a high-level of community service.

"Rocco is talented, dedicated, determined, industrious, mature and responsible," said Lou Cosentino, Rocco's history teacher in both his sophomore and senior years. "He is held in high esteem by teachers and peers alike. The future is almost unlimited for Rocco," added

Cosentino, who retired this June after 38 years teaching at Chaminade.

Throughout high school, Signore made a steadfast commitment to support the Boys and Girls Clubs of America through a program (championssprint.com) he developed to teach kids the proper mechanics of running, acceleration, speed and agility. Most of all, his "Winners Run, Champions Sprint" campaign -- which he first implemented in 2010 at the North Shore Boys and Girls Club in Glen Head before taking it on the road to inner cities nationwide -- helped at-risk kids understand the true meaning of becoming a student-athlete.

Boys and Girls Club Directors across the country recognized that the bond Signore forged with more than 500 kids throughout New York, Miami, Los Angeles, Boston, Chicago and Washington, DC was significant and impactful.

"Rocco exemplifies the mission of the Boys and Girls Club movement," said Mitchell Day, Program Director, Boys and Girls Clubs of Chicago. "The impact Rocco made on the youth he worked with is a tribute to his dedication, enthusiasm and tireless efforts. Rocco's character and leadership should serve as an inspiration to those whose passions are to make a difference in their communities."

On February 5, 2013, on the floor of the New York State Senate, Senator Jack Martins recognized Signore's academic and athletic achievements at Chaminade, as well as his positive contributions to communities nationwide through "Winners Run, Champions Sprint." Senator Martins requested that the Legislative Body pause in its deliberations and adopt a Legislative Resolution to honor Rocco and commend him for the enduring honor he has brought to his family, his school and his community. On the same day, the assembled members of the New York State Senate unanimously approved and adopted New York State Legislative Resolution 350-2013 on behalf of Rocco Signore.

Signore appears to be ready for the next chapter of his academic career at the collegiate level. He decided not to explore numerous athletic scholarship opportunities and instead focused his efforts on the pursuit of a top-10 nationally ranked institution based on academic rigor.

Signore informed the Gold Coast Gazette that while he visited some of the finest universities across the country and enjoyed many of his on-campus experiences, there were only two universities that made his final list. Ultimately, he decided to submit his

First Presbyterian Church Hosts Interagency Council

The Glen Cove Interagency Council recently held its monthly meeting at the First Presbyterian Church. Reverend Betsy Simpson warmly welcomed IAC members and provided an overview of the various ministries and programs offered at the church.

The First Presbyterian Church of Glen Cove was founded in 1869; the church's current building was built in 1905. It is a small congregation with a wide heart. The Church houses the Glen Cove homeless shelter for men each year from November through March. This year marked the shelter's 16th season. The men who come to the shelter are like a little community unto themselves. The church also supports the food pantry at the North Shore INN, collecting food from parishioners every week.

The First Presbyterian Church of Glen Cove is an open and affirming church – everyone is welcome regardless of race, nationality, sexual orientation or economic means. The 6th Annual Pride Service celebration took place on the first Sunday of June.

The church provides space to two Hispanic congregations, sponsors Glen Cove Boy Scout Troop 6, is home to the Gregarians (a gregarious social group) and hosts AA meetings five times a week. It sponsors Vacation Bible School for a week each summer and is a member of the Long Island Council of Churches and the North Shore Clergy.

IAC members also heard a presentation by Maria Caccavale, Assistant Director of FECS, a nonprofit organization that assists unemployed individuals in finding work experiences with not-for-profits and government entities. Clients range from people who are in their mid-twenties to 60 years old. Some are looking for their first job while others have earned their masters degrees. FECS currently has people placed in approximately 168 sites throughout the five boroughs and Nassau and Suffolk Counties, including many sites in Glen Cove.

Members of the IAC include community leaders representing a variety of human and social service agencies throughout Glen Cove. It reflects Glen Cove's rich cultural, religious and ethnic diversity and meets regularly to identify and address changing needs in the community. This network has resulted in numerous projects and collaborations that benefit Glen Cove residents on a daily basis.

Nassau County Council of School Superintendents Honors Top Students

The Nassau County Council of School Superintendents honored the 2013 valedictorians and salutatorians from every high school in the county when it hosted its annual Celebrating Excellence Breakfast in the grand ballroom of the Crest Hollow Country Club. “As you go out to conquer the world, and you will, remember to first conquer yourself,” was the sage advice from Celebrating Excellence Committee Chairman and Freeport Superintendent of Schools Dr. Kishore Kuncham in his address to the students.

Fifty-four tables comprised of Nassau County's top students, proud parents and administrators paid tribute to this group of extraordinary graduating seniors as they were called to the stage to receive their certificates of honor. The destination college or university for each honoree was also announced. This impressive list included Ivy League schools, the best colleges on Long Island, and other elite schools across the country.

“How will you use your gifts? Will inertia be your guide or will you follow your passion?” prodded keynote speaker Theresa Regnante, president and CEO of the United Way of Long Island. “My hope is that you all come back to Long Island to share with us your stories and talents.”

“These fine young men and women are to be saluted for their hard work and their commitment to excellence,” said NCCSS President-elect and North Merrick Superintendent of Schools David S. Feller in his praise of the hard work and dedication of these outstanding students. “We're all confident that you will achieve great things in life.”

After the breakfast concluded, the students headed back to continue the final days of their high school careers, while counting the days to their graduations and next academic endeavors.

Music of the Jazz Age at NSHM July 10

Music Professor Dan Yoder will give a lecture at The North Shore Historical Museum on Wednesday July 10 at 7pm. Through lecture and musical demonstration, Professor Yoder will trace the roots of jazz music of the 1920s, discussing how jazz evolved throughout the Roaring Twenties, moving from the Dixieland styles of New Orleans and Chicago to the smoothness of early swing style.

Dan Yoder is currently professor of music at Penn State University where he serves as Director of Jazz Studies. He teaches jazz history, jazz harmony and arranging, and improvisation. Professor Yoder is also an accomplished saxophonist. In recent years Yoder has been busy as a guest soloist and clinician in the PA, NJ and NY areas.

NSHM is located at 140 Glen Street in Glen Cove. Admission is free for members, $5 for non members, $3 for students with ID.

RSVP 516 801-1191 or email director@northshorehistoricalmuseum.org. For further information visit northshorehistoricalmuseum.org.

PUBLIC NOTICE

PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that a public hearing will be held as to the following matter:

Agency: Board of Appeals, Village of Sea Cliff
Date: July 16, 2013
Time: 8:00 pm
Place: Village Hall, 300 Sea Cliff Avenue, Sea Cliff, New York

Subject: Application of Vivian Zhang, 27 12th Avenue, Sea Cliff to construct a driveway and curb cut, which construction requires variances of the following Village Code sections: (a) §138-1007 in that the curb cut will have no setback from the nearest driveway where the minimum required setback is 8 feet; and (b) 138-1103 in that the proposed driveway intensifies an existing non-conformity. Premises are designated as Section 21, Block 140, Lot 1240 on the Nassau County Land and Tax Map.

[Continued] Application of Doug and Amy Olitsky, 72 Sea Cliff Avenue, Sea Cliff to demolish an existing garage and construct a new garage, which requires variances of the following Village Code provisions to maintain existing conditions: (a) 138-504 in that the lot size is 9,799 square feet, where a minimum of 10,000 square feet is required; (b) 138-506 in that the front yard width is 50 feet, where a minimum of 100 feet is required; (c) 138-508 in that the front yard setback is 13.1 feet, where a minimum of 25 feet is required; (d) 138-510 in that the corner lots are required to have a minimum front property line of 100 feet and the existing front property line is 50 feet; (e) 138-511 in that the side yard setback is 10.7 feet, where a minimum of 15 feet is required; and (f) 138-512 in that the rear yard setback is 10 feet, where a minimum of 30 feet is required. The proposed construction also requires variances of the following Village Code sections: (a) 138-509 in that an accessory structure may not be erected on a lot with less than the required width at the setback line; (b) 138-514.1 in that the floor area will be 3,005 square feet, where a maximum of 2,646 square feet is permitted; (c) 138-516 in that the garage will be setback 3.6 feet from the side property line and 1.8 feet from the rear property line, where the minimum required setbacks are 15 feet and 5 feet, respectively; (d) 138-516 in that the gross floor area of the garage will be 550 square feet where only a 500 square foot garage is permitted and constitutes a second accessory structure in excess of 120 square feet where only one such structure is permitted; (e) 138-1007 in that the new curb cut will be 3.6 feet from the property line, where a minimum of 4 feet is required and will be closer than 8 feet to the nearest curb cut; and (f) 138-1102 in that the proposed garage will increase an existing non-conformity where no such increase is permitted. Premises are designated as Section 21, Block 115, Lot 7 on the Nassau County Land and Tax Map.

[Continued] Application of Doug and Karin Barnaby, 404 Littleworth Lane, Sea Cliff, New York to subdivide a lot with an existing non-conforming use into three residential lots and a private roadway, which requires variances of the following Village Code sections: (a) 138-501 and 138-1103 to increase an existing non-conformity of a property and use, where no such increase is permitted; (b) 138-506 to permit a front property line of 92.18 feet on one lot and 25.02 feet on another lot, where the minimum required front property line is 100 feet; (c) 138-509 to permit a lot width of 92.18 feet, where a minimum required width of 100 feet is required; (d) 138-511 to permit a side yard setback of 11 feet, where a minimum of 15 feet is required; (e) 138-512 to permit a rear yard setback of 20 feet, where a minimum of 30 feet is required; (f) 138-1002 and 138-1001(A) in that the required number of off-street parking spaces are not provided; and (g) 138-1007 in that (i) the proposed subdivision exacerbates an existing non-conforming condition by creating a property line with less than the required 4 foot setback, and (ii) the driveway depicted on parcel B exceeds the minimum permitted width of 25 feet. Applicants also appeal the determination of the building department that the proposed subdivision increases a pre-existing non-conformity. Premises are designated as Section 21, Block L1, Lot 306 on the Nassau County Land and Tax Map.

[Continued] Application of Sustainable Sea Cliff Cooperative, Inc., as licensee, and Aqua New York of Sea Cliff, Inc., as owner, 325 Prospect Avenue, Sea Cliff, New York to use a portion of the premises for a community vegetable farm and related uses where no such uses are permitted pursuant to Village Code §138-501. Premises are designated as Section 21, Block K, Lot 22 on the Nassau County Land and Tax Map.

At the said time and place, all interested persons may be heard with respect to the foregoing matters. All relevant documents may be inspected at the office of the Village Clerk, Village Hall, 300 Sea Cliff Avenue, Sea Cliff, New York, during regular business hours.

Any person having a disability which would inhibit attendance at or participating in the hearing should notify the Village Clerk at least three business days prior to the hearing, so that reasonable efforts may be made to facilitate such attendance and participating.

Second Annual Bloomsday Walk

On Sunday, June 16, the James Joyce Society of Sea Cliff celebrated Bloomsday with a walk through the Village beginning at the Water Tower a/k/a Martello Tower, making stops at Still Partners a/k/a Davey Byrnes Pub, the Post Office, the Library, KC Gallagher's a/k/a Barney Kiernan's, ending up at Memorial Park which stood in for the Cemetery, Sandymount Beach, and the Bloomsday bedroom. At each stop, there were readings and quotes from Joyce's famed novel Ulysses. Joe Hughes provided the music with his Irish penny whistle and Dan and Ann DiPietro, the commentary. Bloomsday is observed around the world every year on June 16 to commemorate the day Ulysses takes place. Festivals, parties, and scholarly conferences all mark the day but Sea Cliff's celebration was uniquely Sea Cliff.

GCHS Track Dedicated to Former Coach

Glen Cove Board of Education President Joel Sunshine joined other former runners and friends and family of Albert "AJ" Johnson in dedicating the Glen Cove High School track in honor of the late Glen Cove High School track coach.

A graduate of Glen Cove High School, Johnson retired in 1999 following a 30-year career as an art teacher and track and cross-country coach in Glen Cove. He passed away three years ago, and the dedication was fittingly held on his birthday.

Sunshine, who ran for Johnson on the cross-country team, served as master of ceremonies at the track dedication. He welcomed a multitude of familiar faces, including fellow runners Tracy Crow, Ed O'Rourke and Carlos Vasquez, former Glen Cove Athletic Director Sal Travatello, and former assistant coaches Jim Peterson and Savy Gallo, among others. Glen Cove City Mayor Ralph Suozzi and Nassau County Legislator Delia De Rigg-Whitton were also on hand to present proclamations commemorating the district for the dedication and for memorializing Johnson for his work with local student-athletes through the years.

"AJ made running a team sport easy," said Sunshine, who shared interesting stories about his former coach, recalling "rabbit runs" to Garvies Point in which team members attempted to catch their coach. He also spoke of how Johnson was not just a coach, but also a mentor and friend. "He was always available to us. If you needed AJ, you called him."

Crow, an African-American who grew up in the Orchard section of Glen Cove but now resides in California, echoed these sentiments. He spoke of how Johnson made him feel welcome during a time when the city was still segregated.

Several family members, including grandchildren Josh and Rochelle Brown, also spoke fondly of the legendary coach, not only as a leader of athletes, but as a quality person. Joined by Johnson's daughters Viki Lynn Brown and Tami Basile, the family looked on as a plaque was unveiled at the entryway leading to the athletic complex, alongside the plaque dedicated to J.C. Maiden, for whom the field is named.

The family of late Glen Cove High School track coach Albert "AJ" Johnson joined Glen Cove Board of Education President Joel Sunshine in dedicating the high school track in Johnson's name.

divorced. On Broadway, she appeared in "Happy Ending", "The Seven Year Itch" and "The Country Girl" with her husband, Jack Klugman. She also held a number of film credits including "A Rage to Live" (1965) with Suzanne Pleshette, Ben Gazzara and Bradford Dillman and "Bus Riley's Back in Town" (1965) with Ann-Margaret. She made many appearances on episodic TV including "Love, American Style", "The Defenders", "Have Gun Will Travel", "Ben Casey", "CHiPs", "The Love Boat", "Barney Miller", "The Mary Tyler Moore Show" and "The Fugitive". She had recurring roles as "Blanche", the ex-wife of "Oscar Madison", played by Jack Klugman on the ABC-TV Neil Simon series, "The Odd Couple". She was probably best known for her appearance as a regular panelist on "The Match Game". Even though she was on the show nine years, practically the entire run of the show, she was not one of the original panelists, which began the new format in 1973. Her husband, Jack, appeared on the first week of the show and suggested that producers bring her aboard. Her wit and dry humor proved extremely successful. She remained a regular panelist and became the foil to Charles Nelson-Reilly, Betty White, Richard Dawson, Flannery Flagg and host Gene Rayburn, among others. Because she and the show became known for somewhat outlandish and risqué dialogue, the show has been described as being a game at a cocktail party. Brett was diagnosed with cancer in 2004. Following long periods of remission, she died on the morning of Sept. 15, 2003 of stomach and colon cancer. Jack Klugman died Dec. 24, 2012.

This week's celebrity was born Dawn Paris. She began as a child actress under the name Dawn O' Day in Pre-Code movies such as Tom Mix's Riders of the Purple Sage, Three on a Match, and Rasputin and the Empress. She later adopted her stage name from a character she played in a movie based on a book by Lucy Maud Montgomery. She was nominated for an Academy Award for Best Supporting Actress for the movie Stella Dallas.

Last Week's Celebrity

Last week's celebrity, born Audrey Johnston, was Brett Somers. She changed her first name to "Brett" after the lead female character in Ernest Hemingway's "The Sun Also Rises" and the surname "Somers" was her mother's maiden name. Born in Canada, she became a U.S. citizen later in life. After moving to NYC, she married and had a daughter, Leslie, before divorcing her first husband. In 1953, she married actor Jack Klugman. They had two sons, Adam and David. The couple separated in 1974 but never

Portledge School Holds 38Th Commencement Exercises

Portledge School hosted its 38th Commencement Exercises on Friday, June 14, 2013. Family and friends gathered on the Gimbel Lawn under a tent to share this joyous occasion. The Class of 2013 graduated thirty-nine students, several of whom have been at the school since early childhood.

The morning festivities began with the processional led by the Board of Trustees and the honored members of the Class of 2013. Music was performed by Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Upper School Concert Band, under the direction of Patricia Baehr. Neil Nalanuthala '13 (Glen Cove) and Anna Ticker '13 (Brookville) sang America the Beautiful. The opening remarks were given by Simon Owen-Williams, Head of School, and Richard Kirikian (Oyster Bay), President of the Board of Trustees. This year's commencement speaker was Dr. Craig R. Smith, Chairman of the Department of Surgery at New York Presbyterian/Columbia University Medical Center where he specializes in valve repair and replacement, coronary bypass procedures and operations involving the thoracic aorta. He gave an inspirational speech with words of wisdom for the graduates.

Jon Sandos '03, Dean of Students, presented the '76 Award. This award is named for the first senior class to graduate from Portledge and is given each year by the tenth reunion class to the teacher who is remembered as having the greatest impact on the members of the class. This year's recipient is John McIlvain.

Simon Owen-Williams presented the David W. Hoyer Faculty Award, which is presented to a member of the Portledge School faculty for outstanding dedication to students and exemplary commitment to teaching within and beyond the classroom. It was awarded to Louise Galli.

Harry Grzelewski, Upper School Division Head, recognized the Arts Scholars and Cum Laude members and gave the following awards:

Bliss Award – Presented to a senior in recognition of excellence in visual or performing arts.

RECIPIENT: Anna Ticker (Brookville) Senior Athletic Award - Awarded by vote of the faculty to recognize outstanding athletes in the senior class.

RECIPIENT: Cecilia Mulry (Glen Cove)

Slanetz Award – Established in 1981, awarded to that member of the senior class whose academic record shows the highest level of achievement throughout his or her sophomore, junior and senior years at Portledge, given in the hope that these scholars will apply their intellectual ability to improvement of the human condition and for the well-being of others.

RECIPIENT: Jennifer Ferrante (Long Beach)

Portledge Bowl – Established by the trustees in 1976 upon the vote of the faculty to be presented to “that senior who best exemplifies the character and values Portledge holds in the highest esteem.”

RECIPIENT: Eve Shapiro (Glen Cove)

Mr. Owen-Williams also recognized those students who had been at Portledge since early childhood: Evan Adonailo (Glen Cove), Harrison Caldwell (Glen Cove), Elaine Gahagan (Lattingtown), Marc Mucciaccio (Huntington), Cecilia Mulry (Glen Cove), Arielle Parris (Hempstead), Eve Shapiro (Glen Cove), Anna Ticker (Brookville), and Jacqueline Worrall (Syosset). The talented Upper School Chorus, under the direction of William Peek, sang Our Time by Stephen Sondheim. Student speakers, Evan Adonailo (Glen Cove) and Anna Ticker (Brookville), gave wonderful inspirational speeches which made people laugh and cry. The memorable morning ended with the presentation of diplomas to the graduates, followed by a reception held in the Wellington Gymnasium.

Best of luck to the Portledge Class of 2013! We know you will continue to do amazing things in college and beyond.

Mad Science® Comes to Glenwood Landing An Imaginative Scientific Learning Experience

To the delight of all of the students at Glenwood Landing, the exciting Mad Science® show visited the school on June 14th with the popular theme Up Up and Away. This wonderful, science-themed presentation combines a little bit of magic with a lot of science to generate a whole bunch of fun for everyone!

Kindergarten-fifth graders participated in exciting demonstrations and experiments involving chemical reactions, combustion, gravity, and centrifugal force. They also learned how air pressure can be used to launch a mini-rocket and how a vortex generator creates giant smoke rings. Plus, a few even took a ride on the Mad Science Hovercraft in just one hour!

Many thanks to GWL SWES Director Audra Marcantonio for organizing this event and the Glenwood SCA for sponsoring this educational experience. Mad Science® of Long Island offers after school enrichment programs, school assemblies, and other private events for children. For further details, please visit their website at <http://longisland.mad-science.org>

Remember students, do not try these experiments at home but please tell your families all about them!

Cub Scout Pack 6 Campout

On Saturday, June 8th, the Glen Cove Cub Scout Pack 6 held their annual year-end cookout/campout at the YMCA in Glen Cove. Despite the wet weather and torrential rain we experienced the day before, Saturday turned out to be just a little bit cloudy, which meant the cookout and sleepover would proceed on schedule. The day started off with a rocket launch. The scouts had made rockets during their previous den meeting and now were launching them to see which ones would take off and have a safe landing with a parachute and which rockets would just fall to the ground without the parachute having a chance to open. All in all, the boys had a great time and spent hours launching the rockets and running after them in the field. After a great dinner that some very experienced leaders and adults cooked, the scouts gathered around and received their patches and various awards for their achievements throughout the year. After that, they headed over to the campfire to roast marshmallows and perform skits. Many thanks to the parents and to the leaders who made this event a huge success and without them, these events would not be possible!

Great Book Guru

- Ann DiPietro

Dear Great Book Guru,
 What great fun we had this week at Sea Cliff's many Fourth of July related celebrations. My favorite is always the reading of the Declaration of Independence on the steps of the Library. Carol Vogt and her committee do a super job every year and this was no exception. While on the refreshment line - love those Grassroots' muffins- I heard someone mention having just finished a book about the changing state of America told through a series of short biographies. It sounded interesting to read on this holiday weekend. Any thoughts?

Summer Patriot

Dear Summer Patriot,
 Yes, I know the book: George Packer's THE UNWINDING: The Inner History of the New America. This is a very sad, very disturbing book, but worthwhile and beautifully written. In its essence, "unwinding" is the coming apart of all that has kept the country together: economically, politically, and morally. While America has undergone unwinding in the past and emerged stronger than ever, this time he sees major differences that do not auger well for the future. He traces the lives of three citizens all born in the 1960's who are struggling to reinvent themselves in a changing America, a country he sees as Walmartized- cheap goods, low salaries, and huge profits for the very few- as an example, the six Walmart heirs have more money than the entire bottom 30% of the population. Interspersed with the tales of these three, are ten short biographical sketches of modern day icons, some virtuous (Elizabeth Warren) but most - if not villainous-complicit (Oprah Winfrey, Joe Biden, Colin Powell, Robert Rubin, Sam Walmart) in Packer's view. Certainly not light holiday reading, but highly recommended!

Fantastic Success – Rotary Pancakes and Friends

The Glen Cove Rotary 1st Annual Pancake Breakfast was a great success. Without a movie theater for the annual Rotary Movie Night, Glen Cove Rotary rolled with the punch to find another means to raise money for the many Glen Cove community services that they support, Dress a Child (60 Children), send children to camp (20), scholarships and many others. Almost 200 people came to the breakfast held at the Moose Lodge. It was not only breakfast it was meeting friends and socializing with many people remaining to visit after eating. A great time was had by all. The Rotary Club of Glen Cove gives a tip of the hat to all who made this possible though donations of supplies and to all who supported our service projects by attending.
