Preying On Elderly Homeowners

Two unknown men are suspected in deceiving local elderly residents to gain access into their homes by posing as maintenance workers. Once inside one incident resulted in the burglary of fifty thousand dollars of one couples life savings.

According to Det. Lt. John Nagle on February 3, 2015 at approximately 1:30pm a male white approximately 5'11 with a mustache wearing a baseball cap knocked on the door of 47 Wolfle Street in Glen Cove.

According Nagle, When the 85 year old resident answered the door, the man proceeded to walk into the house take the homeowner by the hand and led her to the back door of the house. "This unknown man was wearing some type of walkie talkie around his neck," said Nagle. "At that time her 79 year old husband woke up from his nap and joined the man and his wife at the back door. The unknown man then told the homeowners that he needed to cut some trees down in their yard. The husband pointed out to the man that he doesn't have any trees in his yard. The man then started talking on his walkie talkie and a second man entered the house."

The second man is described as a heavy set male white with short dark hair possible 5'7 wearing dark clothing. This second man was also wearing some type of a walkie talkie around his neck. Both of the men then walked the husband into the backyard. The men then continued to talk with the husband. After a few minutes the second man entered the house while the first man remained in the back yard with the husband. After a minute or two the first man walked into the house accompanied by the husband. When they got to the front of the house the husband noticed a silver or grey 4 door pickup truck backing out of his driveway. The husband remembers that this pickup had some type of cover on the back bed of the truck.

"The first man then proceeded to walk out of the house and toward the pickup truck which was now driving south bound on Wolfle Street," said Nagle.

"The husband then checked his bedroom and noticed that his safe containing his life savings of over $50,000 was missing from his bedroom."

Approximately 15 minutes earlier, according to Nagle, a block away at 11 First Street, a man fitting the description of the first man entered the residence of another elderly couple. Once inside the house the man confronted the 93-year-old man living there with his wife and told him he was there to pick up a table. The couple's home health aide emerged from another room and confronted the man. The aide then called the couple's daughter and the man left the house. Anyone with information is urged to call the Glen Cove Police at 516-320-7929 or leave information on the Glen Cove Police e-mail at tips@cityofglencoveny.org . All calls will remain confidential.

The Ancient Order of Hibernians (AOH) Mike Moran Division 8 and the Ladies AOH are hard at work finalizing preparations for this year's Glen Cove St. Patrick's Day Parade. On Saturday, Jan. 31, the Hibernians held the traditional Presentation of the Sash Ceremony. This year's parade Grand Marshal is the Very Rev. Dom Elias Carr, pastor of St. Rocco's Church and the headmaster of All Saints Regional Catholic School.

Cipriano wins Connolly Spelling Bee

Amedea Cipriano, a student at Connolly School in Glen Cove was named the winner of the school's fifth-grade Spelling Bee on Jan. 8.

The event was organized by teachers Nancy Cox and Dora Ricciardi and featured 10 students vying for the title of champion. According to Cox, this year's competition was truly thrilling.

"It was one of our most exciting bees," Cox said. "The last two students were going back and forth for several rounds before we had a winner."

Keith Callaghan was the runner up in the competition. Principal Rosemarie

Sekelsky congratulates the following students:

- Amedea Cipriano
- Michael Adams
- Anna Basil
- Keith Callaghan
- Josue Mejia
- Andrew Glaviano
- Josiah Aschalew
- Ally Pascucci
- Maria Alvarado

The Blind Truth- February 8th!

THE BLIND TRUTH, a one-man show with music, follows the singular life of Vincent Basile, a.k.a Vinny St. Marten, who was born with severe glaucoma in both eyes and eventually lost his sight by the age of seven. Growing up poor, the last of sixteen children, Vinny's childhood was marked by personal and social challenges - bullying, racism, hate, violence, abuse - and a series of harrowing operations to regain his sight. When those operations failed, he was thrown into a Kafkaesque system of special schools where "they just tried to make me blinder."

Rebelling against the role society had carved out for him, Vinny followed his own dream, and his eventual triumph, as a world-traveled singer-drummer working with some of the greats of the music business, is thrilling and inspirational. "With all the adversity I faced," he says, "it was the gift of blindness and my passion for music that literally saved my life."

Vinny St. Marten has been called "a blind visionary" for his keen and unflinching insight into the human condition. And THE BLIND TRUTH takes us on Vinny's musical odyssey, with songs and scenes drawn from his own personal experience. He is joined onstage by Elysa Sunshine, a frequent collaborator and long-time member of his band, who provides keyboard accompaniment and vocals. The book of THE BLIND TRUTH is by Vinny St. Marten, Elysa Sunshine and Frederick Stropel, with music & lyrics by Vinny St. Marten and Elysa Sunshine. The production is directed by Frederick Stropel.

THE BLIND TRUTH will be performed on Sunday February 8 at 6 pm. The Creative Arts Studio is located at 256 Sea Cliff Avenue in Sea Cliff, NY. Tickets are $10; Reservations can be made at 516-676-3022 or at fredstrop@aol.com.

Northwinds Symphonic Band Small Ensemble Concert

The Northwinds Symphonic Band is pleased to present a Small Ensemble Concert on Sunday, February 8, 2015 at 3 PM at the Glenwood Landing School in Glen Head, NY.

The concert will feature many of Northwinds' finest musicians showcasing their artistry in a variety of small ensembles: flute choir, clarinet choir, brass quintet, clarinet duet, woodwind trio and solo clarinet. The program will include both classical, contemporary and lighter selections by Mozart, Cook, Stravinsky, Hornsby and others.

The finale, featuring the largest ensemble, is a delightful and satirical arrangement of well known classical themes.

Please join us for a wonderful afternoon of music. Admission is free. The Glenwood Landing School is wheelchair accessible and is located at 60 Cody Ave. In Glen Head, NY 11545

Founded in 2007, the Northwinds Symphonic Band is under the direction of Helen Bauer. The 80 member concert band performs several concerts each season from November through July. For additional information or inquiries please call 516.759.9694 or email Helen Bauer at hband50@optonline.net.

After 3 Program Showcases Our Students' Talent

The Glen Cove After 3 Program, under the auspices of the Glen Cove Youth Bureau, held a wonderful showcase on January 29. Program Director Spiro Tsirkas, MSW, and the students attending the program had decided that for this showcase, Science would be the overall theme. The members of each After 3 club, which includes dance, art, cooking, Spanish, music, and career exploration, completed a project in keeping with the theme. The music club created their own song, the cooking healthy club members served up delicious food, the art club displayed coral reefs made of clay, and the career exploration club studied different businesses and interviewed professionals. The students offered an excellent showcase of their talents and that learning is fun!

Book Signing Benefit Party

Joan Harrison's third book about Glen Cove, GLEN COVE: Modern America, was well received at her book launch, Friday, January 30th. The View Grill was filled with many who wanted to share fond memories of growing up in Glen Cove. Joan's book is a photo montage of the City from 1950 to the present. Music was provided by Matt Grabowski and his band. Mayor Reginald Spinello presented Joan with a citation from the City honoring her ongoing work preserving our history. Assemblyman Charles Lavine, City Councilwoman Pam Panzenbeck and former Mayor Ralph Suozzi were among the well wishers. The book signing was a wonderful success. Joan Harrison has graciously donated the proceeds of the book to the Glen Cove SAGE Foundation, which is the fundraising arm of the Senior Center.

Bring on the Spring

Sooo, enough snow for you yet? I'd like to give a shout out to the North Shore School district- they've handled the transportation extremely well so far. Last snow storm (not this past one the one before that, or was it the one before that?) when the kids had to be brought home in the inclement weather drivers did a fantastic job navigating the roads and getting the children home safe and sound. Spring? Not sure, the ground hog was snowed in but here is a possible sign: the Glen Cove Junior Soccer League is having a registration for Spring Soccer:

North Shore Key Club Makes A Successful Slam Dunk Play For Service

On January 10th 2015 the North Shore key Club completed their single service project . This project was created to show awareness for autism and to educate people regarding this affliction. So with hoops down in the North Shore High School Gym, the North Shore Key Clubbers and our students from the North Shore High School “Life Skills Program” took the court and played basketball. With the buddy-up teams selected, Key Clubbers paired up with the Life Skills group and we had a “slam dunk” event with smiles galore. Kiwanis DPG Joe Aiello attended to show his support and presented trophies to all the Life Skill Program participants and North Shore Kiwanians DPP Gary Craner and SDPLG Larry Benedetti ran the score board with the Roslyn Warriors Aktion Club on hand to assist Kiwanis. This was a true K Family event and a wonderful opportunity for the K Family to join hands for service. In game two that followed, also hosted by the NS Key Clubbers & Key Club President Elias Mastakouris leading the group, North Shore High students took the court with 22 teams present and a 3 on 3 tournament game was played. The outcome of that event was $1400.00 raised in 2 hours for the Autism Speaks Organization. Pictured are some participants at the event.....slam dunkin’ at its best!!!

Glen Cove Board Recognizes AP Scholars

The Glen Cove Board of Education recognized the district’s 2014 Advanced Placement Scholars at its Jan. 12 meeting at Glen Cove High School. Honorees included current students as well as Class of 2014 graduates, who were invited to the meeting to be commended by the board. In all, the district celebrated the academic accomplishments of 40 students.

During the meeting, board members were also provided with information on the district’s child nutrition program through a presentation given by Kim Coopersmith of Food Services. Assistant Superintendent for Business Victoria Galante also shared preliminary details of the 2015-16 budget with those in attendance.

Obituaries

Richard Walter Heurtley

Richard Walter Heurtley, gentleman, scholar, sportsman, adventurer, Renaissance man par excellence, died in his 95th year at his home in Sea Cliff on 19th January.

He was born in Manhattan, son of Richard Heurtley and Helen Thatcher Heurtley. Richard attended Allen-Stevenson School and Philips Exeter Academy, graduating at 15 with a full scholarship to Harvard University. After two years he left Harvard looking for adventure. He was adept at canoeing and embarked on a solo canoe trip from his parent's summer home in Darien Connecticut to Daytona Beach, Florida. Later he travelled to Panama where he bought a 36 foot ketch and sailed her through the Panama Canal and up to Stratford Connecticut. He then lived on the ketch for several years while working on an oyster boat hauling 'spat' to the Oyster Bay Oyster Company.

In 1944 Richard sold the sail boat and entered Columbia University where he earned BA, MA, and PhD degrees, majoring in Western European History. He specialized in German History and German Intellectual History. He held teaching posts at Columbia University, North Carolina University, Carnegie Institute, and Long Island University. He eventually settled in Sea Cliff where he continued sailing, running—which he did competitively into his 80's— and traveling with many adventures.

Richard had a lifelong love of music, his favorite being the works of J.S.Bach and the Baroque composers. He was a sponsor of Music at St. John's, a professional group performing masterpieces of the Baroque. He also loved opera and attended as much as he could. He loved dancing, especially folk dancing and in his youth belonged to a folk dance group. He could often be seen joining dancers at local folk festivals. After retiring from teaching at C.W.Post., Richard turned his talents to investing, and enjoyed stock market trading. He was a very 'handy' man and enjoyed working on his property and maintaining his antique furniture collection.

His was a well-rounded life, filled with energetic enjoyment of good things, good friends, good conversation, and sharing with family.

Richard is survived by his wife Janette Kling Heurtley, stepchildren Peter Ames of Boston, Hugh (Sheila), and Kristian (Kristen) Mariaca of Loudonville, NY, and Teresa Mariaca Barnett (William) of Bloomington, Indiana. Grandchildren Loran Cook, Amya Crouse, Nicholas Mariaca, Nathan, Tyler, Emma, Tessa Barnett and Lilianna Mariaca.

Gloria Cherubini

Cherubini, Gloria of Glen Cove NY on January 28, 2015. Beloved daughter of the late Angelo and Julia Cherubini. Loving aunt of Dana Cherubini (Timothy Sedlmayr), Lisa Cherubini Diletti (Fabio) of Herndon, VA, JC Cherubini (Heide) of Huntington, NY and Paula Cherubini Beckerle (Michael) of Falmouth, MA. Cherished great aunt of Cristian, Michela and Daniela Diletti and Francesca and Martin Beckerle. Dear sister of the late Irene T. Cherubini and Joseph M. Cherubini. Also survived by many devoted cousins. Funeral Mass at St. Patrick's RC Church Glen Cove. Interment Locust Valley Cemetery, Locust Valley, NY. In lieu of flowers Gloria's family has requested that donations be made to the Glen Cove Senior Center, 130 Glen Street, Glen Cove, NY 11542. Arrangements by Whitting Funeral Home.

Edwin David Marks

Edwin David Marks, 92, died on January 25 at his home in Delray Beach, Florida after a brief illness. Born on October 18, 1922 in Flushing, New York, he was a long-time resident of Sea Cliff, Ed graduated from Great Neck High School in 1940, and entered the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania, where he was a member of the Marching Band's Fanfare Honor Society. Enrolling in the U.S. Army in 1942, he served as Sergeant and landed in France on D-Day plus 2. He was discharged in 1945 and graduated from Wharton in 1946. He joined Sunrise Oil, a heating oil supplier in College Point, Queens in 1947, and ran it until 2010, having expanded it to Plainview, Long Island. He was president of the Long Island Oil Terminals Association. Ed also served as president of the Kiwanis, and was a member of the Elks and Masons.

A dog lover and lifelong sailor, Ed was a member of yacht clubs at Musceta Cove, Hempstead Harbor (Commodore), Shelter Island, Sea Cliff, Knickerbocker (Fleet Captain), and Sewanhaka Power Squadron (Commodore and Founding Member). When not on the water, he was never so happy as when he was putting in his workshop using his favorite tool, 2-part epoxy. Ed is survived by his devoted wife Brenda, daughters Kim Fiertz (Carey) and Amy Franklin (Don), and granddaughters Jackie Franklin, Maggie Fiertz, Alex Franklin, and Nikki Franklin.

A memorial service will be held at a later date. In lieu of flowers, donations to the Wounded Warrior Project at woundedwarriorproject.org would be greatly appreciated.

Doris Adele

Doris Adele Sommerfeld, 87, died on January 14, 2015 of natural causes. She was born November 26, 1927, in Brooklyn, NY to Martha Haroldsen Johnson and Edward Fredrick Johnson. She graduated as the valedictorian of her class at Andrew Jackson High School in Queens in 1945. She attended Queens College, graduating with a bachelor's degree in mathematics in 1949. As a student, she served as recording secretary on the student council and secretary on the student-faculty committee. She was also a member of the Lutheran Club and Beta Sigma Omicron sorority.

Doris married Albert A. Sommerfeld on May 22, 1949. She earned a master's degree from Queens in 1953 and taught mathematics at Sewanhaka High School in Floral Park, NY, and also worked as a home tutor for students who were ill or otherwise unable to attend school.

After her children were born, she stopped working outside the home but remained active in the community. Doris was a member of Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Glen Head, where she served as coordinator of the prayer chain. She was very involved with the church's women's group, helping to organize the annual Christmas boutique, make quilts for Lutheran World Relief, and assist with many church dinners and other events. She was also active in the Glen Head Women's Club and a longtime member of the Nassau County Historical Society. She and her husband attended performances of the New York City Opera for many years, and they enjoyed going to a wide variety of concerts around Long Island.

While Doris was an only child, she had a large extended family with many cousins with whom she maintained active ties, some as far away as Norway. She was preceded in death by her husband, Albert A. Sommerfeld. She is survived by her son Bill, his wife Renee, and their daughter Anna; her daughter Meg and husband Jay Matson, and their daughters Madeline and Abigail. Visiting Thursday February 12, 2015 from 2 – 4 and 7 – 9 pm at Whitting Funeral Home, 300 Glen Cove Avenue, Glen Head, NY www.whitting.com. PUBLIC NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT the Glen Cove City Council adopted the following Local Law 01-2015, at the City Council Meeting of January 29, 2015:

RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF GLEN COVE TO AMEND ARTICLE II OF ITS CHARTER ENTITLED SECTION C2-19 DEPARTMENT OF CODE ENFORCEMENT; POWERS, DUTIES AND ARTICLE 5: POLICE FORCE, SECTION C 5-1: DIVISION OF CODE ENFORCEMENT.

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Glen Cove is desirous of enacting a Local Law to protect the health, safety and welfare of its citizens; and

WHEREAS, a public hearing on the proposed Local Law was held on January 13, 2015, whereat all interested persons were given an opportunity to be heard with respect to the enactment of said Local Law;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Charter be amended as follows:

Remove: §C2-19 Department of Code Enforcement; powers, duties.

A. There shall be a Department of Code Enforcement, the head of which shall be the Director of Code Enforcement.

B. The Director of Code Enforcement shall be appointed by the Mayor with the consent of the Council, and shall be under the direction and supervision of the Mayor.

C. The Director of Code Enforcement shall:

a. Be responsible for enforcement of all laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, codes and orders applicable to the use of land and the location, design, materials, construction, alteration, repair, equipment, maintenance, use, occupancy, removal and demolition of the buildings and structures and their appurtenances located in the City of Glen Cove; and

b. Provide to the Mayor quarterly reports of all activities of the Department and all inspectors, in addition to any reports directed to be made to the Mayor.

D. If any provision of this section shall be in conflict with any other provision of this Charter or the City's Code of Ordinances the provisions of this Section shall control.

E. This Local Law shall take effect upon their filing with the Office of the Secretary of State.

Add:
Article 5: Police Force

Section C5-3: Division of Code Enforcement

A. There shall be within the Police Department, the Division of Code Enforcement. Said division shall be supervised by the Chief of Police or his designee and shall be staffed with civilian employees. Employees in this division serving as Multiple Residence Inspectors shall also have the enforcement powers of Code Enforcement Officers.

B. As section 10 of the Municipal Home Rule Law of the State of New York grants the City Council of the City of Glen Cove the authority to enact local laws and amend local laws and for the purpose of promoting the health, safety or general welfare of the City of Glen Cove and for the protection and enhancement of its physical environment, the Mayor with the consent of the City Council shall appoint to the Division of Code Enforcement from time to time such municipal officers, employees, or independent contractors deemed necessary to effectuate, administer and enforce such local laws.

C. The Code Enforcement Division shall be responsible for enforcement of all laws, ordinances, rules, regulations, codes and orders applicable to the use of land and the location, design, materials, construction, alteration, repair, equipment, maintenance, use, occupancy, removal and demolition of the buildings and structures and their appurtenances located in the City of Glen Cove. Furthermore, the Code Enforcement Division shall be responsible for enforcement of all other codes and ordinances as so conferred by the Code of the City of Glen Cove upon code enforcement officials as well as the Fire Prevention, Housing Standards, Landmark Preservation, and Noise codes.

The Code Enforcement Division shall provide to the City Attorney quarterly reports of all activities of the division and all inspectors as necessary for prosecution, in addition to any reports directed or requested to be made to the Mayor.

D. If any provision of this section shall be in conflict with any other provision of this Charter or the City's Code of Ordinances, the provisions of this section shall control.

E. This section shall take effect upon its filing with the Office of the Secretary of State.

PUBLIC NOTICE OF COUNTY

TREASURER'S SALE OF TAX LIENS ON REAL ESTATE

Notice is hereby given that I shall on the 17th day of February, 2015 through the 20th day of February, 2015, beginning at 10:00 o'clock in the morning each day, in the Legislative Chambers, First Floor, Theodore Roosevelt Executive and Legislative Building, 1550 Franklin Avenue, Mineola, New York, sell at public auction the tax liens on certain real estate, unless the owner, mortgagee, occupant of or any other party in interest in such real estate shall have paid to the County Treasurer by February 13th, 2015 the total amount of such unpaid taxes or assessments with the interest, penalties and other expenses and charges against the property. Such tax liens will be sold at the lowest rate of interest, not exceeding 10 percent per six month period, for which any person or persons shall offer to take the total amount of such unpaid taxes as defined in Section 5-37.0 of the Nassau County Administrative Code.

As required by Section 5-44.0 of the Nassau County Administrative Code, the County Treasurer shall charge a registration fee of $100.00 per day to each person who shall seek to bid at the public auction as defined above.

A list of all real estate in Nassau County on which tax liens are to be sold is available at the website of the Nassau County Treasurer at <http://www.nassaucountyny.gov/DocumentCenter/View/10577>

A list of local properties upon which tax liens are to be sold will be advertised in this publication on or before February 12th, 2015.

Nassau County does not discriminate on the basis of disability in admission to or access to, or treatment or employment in, its services, programs, or activities. Upon request, accommodations such as those required by the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) will be provided to enable individuals with disabilities to participate in all services, programs, activities and public hearings and events conducted by the Treasurer's Office.

Upon request, information can be made available in Braille, large print, audio-tape or other alternative formats. For additional information, please call (516) 571-2090 Ext. 13715.

Dated: January 2015 THE NASSAU COUNTY TREASURER Mineola, New York

TERMS OF SALE
Such tax liens shall be sold subject to any and all superior tax liens of sovereignties and other municipalities and to all claims of record which the County may have thereon and subject to the provisions of the Federal and State Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Acts.

However, such tax liens shall have priority over the County's Differential Interest Lien, representing the excess, if any, of the interest and penalty borne at the maximum rate over the interest and penalty borne at the rate at which the lien is purchased.

The Purchaser acknowledges that the tax lien(s) sold pursuant to these Terms of Sale may be subject to pending bankruptcy proceedings and/or may become subject to such proceedings which may be commenced during the period in which a tax lien is held by a successful bidder or the assignee of same, which may modify a Purchaser's rights with respect to the lien(s) and the property securing same. Such bankruptcy proceedings shall not affect the validity of the tax lien. In addition to being subject to pending bankruptcy proceedings and/or the Federal and State Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Acts, said purchaser's right of foreclosure may be affected by the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act(FIRREA),12 U.S.C. ss 1811 et.seq., with regard to real property under Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation(FDIC) receivership.

The County Treasurer reserves the right, without further notice and at any time, to withdraw from sale any of the parcels of land or premises herein listed. The Nassau County Treasurer reserves the right to intervene in any bankruptcy case/litigation where the property affected by the tax liens sold by the Treasurer is part of the bankruptcy estate. However, it is the sole responsibility of all tax lien purchasers to protect their legal interests in any bankruptcy case affecting their purchased tax lien, including but not limited to the filing of a proof of claim on their behalf, covering their investment in said tax lien. The Nassau County Treasurer and Nassau County and its agencies, assumes no responsibility for any legal representation of any tax lien purchaser in any legal proceeding including but not limited to a bankruptcy case where the purchased tax lien is at risk.

The rate of interest and penalty at which any person purchases the tax lien shall be established by his bid. Each purchaser, immediately after the sale thereof, shall pay to the County Treasurer ten per cent of the amount for which the tax liens have been sold and the remaining ninety per cent within thirty days after such sale. If the purchaser at the tax sale shall fail to pay the remaining ninety per cent within ten days after he has been notified by the County Treasurer that the certificates of sale are ready for delivery, then all amounts deposited with the County Treasurer including but not limited to the ten per cent theretofore paid by him shall, without further notice or demand, be irrevocably forfeited by the purchaser and shall be retained by the County Treasurer as liquidated damages and the agreement to purchase shall be of no further effect.

Time is of the essence in this sale. This sale is held pursuant to the Nassau County Administrative Code and interested parties are referred to such Code for additional information as to terms of the sale, rights of purchasers, maximum rates of interest and other legal incidents of the sale.

Name the Celebrity

Spencer Tracy playing the leader of a lynch mob in Fritz Lang's first Hollywood film "Fury" (1936), and with Errol Flynn in Michael Curtiz's epic western, "Dodge City" (1939), which became one of Warner Brothers' biggest hits. A consistent box office draw, he appeared in many movies at many studios before leaving Hollywood to serve in WWII.

Last week's celebrity was Montague Love. He had a commanding, puckered-lip British delivery of speech which he could believably weld to any part, but it particularly fit characters of authority, as in the silent era. One of Love's first sound films was the part-time talkie "The Mysterious Island" co-starring Lionel Barrymore. In 1937, perhaps his best known character tour-de-force displaying his genuine acting power was his Henry VIII in the first talking version of Mark Twain's "Prince and the Pauper" with Errol Flynn. It is hard to forget him in purple, as "Bishop of the Black Canons" in "The Adventures of Robin Hood" (1936) also with Errol Flynn. He played gruff authoritarian figures such as "Monsieur Cavaignac", who, contrary to history, demands the resignation of those responsible for the Dreyfus cover-up, in "The Life of Emile Zola" (1937), as well as, Zorro's father in the 1940 version of "The Mark of Zorro" starring Tyrone Power. In 1939's "Gunga Din" with Cary Grant, it is Montague Love, who reads the final stanza of Rudyard Kipling's original poem over the body of slain "Din". His last film, "Devotion" was released three years after his death on May 17, 1943, at the age of 63. Cirrect callers: Will and Babs Hutchins, Don Adams, Mario Moccia, Roberta Pezza

Our celebrity was born Etienne Pelissier Jacques de Bujac in Carlsbab, New Mexico on April 20, 1904. His mother died shortly after childbirth. As a young man, he left the University of the South in Sewanee, Tenn. without graduating. He worked at many jobs, including as a sailor, an insurance man, oil worker, surveyor, prize fighter, car salesman, real-estate agent, and also worked at a slaughterhouse. A meeting with David O. Selznick at a Hollywood party started his acting career. He appeared in nearly one hundred feature films. He made his debut in 1931 in "Heroes of the Flames." He tested for the lead role of the "Ringo Kid" in John Ford's western "Stagecoach" (1939), but John Wayne got the part. He played a soldier who seduced a naive woman, portrayed by Irene Dunne, and got her pregnant as he left for the war, in the 1933 production of "Ann Vickers." He starred in the 1933 blockbuster "King Kong", which became an enormous success and established him as a star. He also played villains, appearing as a gangster in "Let 'Em Have It" (1939) and as the Huron warrior Magua opposite Randolph Scott in "The Last of the Mohicans" (1936). He starred with

Daly Lecture at NSHM

Robert Pemberton Sr., a Marine Sergeant Major gave a lecture and power point presentation recently at NSHM on the life of local hero Marine Sergeant Major Dan Daly. Daly was born in Glen Cove and was the recipient of two medals of Honor. Daly served in the boxer Rebellion in China in 1900, and in 1915 in Haiti and during World War I.

Last year a parade including young marines, and a ceremony rededicating the Daly Monument took place in Glen Cove, and more recently the part of Route 107 in Glen Cove was renamed for Dan Daly.

Board member, Linda Darby, introduced Mr. Pemberton to the crowd who filled the old courthouse. After a question and answer period refreshments were served.

Great Book Guru

- Ann DiPietro

Dear Great Book Guru,
Snowbound again! Please recommend a book that will transport me from this Winter Wonderland for a few hours..... Lover of Sea Cliff Sun and Snow

Dear Sea Cliff Sun and Snow Lover,
 My evening book group just read a wonderful historical novel (just 200 pages) that will take you far, far away without your having to leave Sea Cliff : EUPHORIA by Lily King. Set in New Guinea in the 30's, this book tells the story of three young scientists who find love, intrigue, and despair in their study of tribal life. With some startling changes, the story is largely based on the lives of Margaret Mead, her two husbands, Reno Fortune, Gregory Bateson, and her lover Ruth Benedict- all renowned anthropologists. Anthropology was a relatively new science in 1930 and each of the characters takes a very different approach to its practice. Nell- the Mead character- is the most appealing of the trio, but she too shows remarkable callousness and misguided benevolence toward the men and women she encounters. The characters' back stories, especially of their early years in London and New York, prove a fascinating contrast to their lives in the South Pacific. With a touch of mystery and a strong overlay of tropical romance, you have a fine read for a snowy evening. Recommended!

Letters to the Editor

Question: Where are our tax dollars going?

To The Editor,

Answer: To pay John Chase, Counsel for the City of Glen Cove Planning Board, to help the developer of the Villa Project gain approvals from the Nassau County Planning Commission. On January 29, our Planning Board Attorney, who is supposed to be neutral was advocating for the Villa Project at the Nassau County Planning Commission in a meeting with Bob O'Brien, County Attorney. Mr. Chase attended this meeting with Mr. Patrick Hoebich, Attorney for the Villa project, who used to work at Mr. Chase's law firm. The question is, why is Mr. Chase partnering with the developer's attorney towards the interests of the developer and why are we, the taxpayers paying for his time to do it.

For some reason, the Developer's interests are more important to the Glen Cove City administration than the interest of its own constituents. Despite a November 2010 letter from the Nassau County Planning Commission raising serious and numerous adverse impacts of the Villa Project, the County just abdicated its role and allowed Mr. Chase to convince them that Glen Cove can move the Villa project forward without the required scrutiny.

Mayor Spinello got elected because he committed to revisit development decisions, including the Villa, made by the past administration. What people may not realize is that Dan Livingston, developer of the Villa Project, gave significant campaign donations to Reggie Spinello and this is simply payback. Mr. Chase works for Mr. Spinello and is doing his bidding. Mr. Chase is using his influence to work on behalf of the Developer of a Project before him. This is the epitome of a conflict of interest and a violation of the Public Officers Law.

By advocating for the developer and not following the law, this administration has exposed the city to lawsuits, which the taxpayers will also have to pay for. Our tax dollars should certainly not be spent for the benefit of this developer at the expense of the citizens and our neighborhoods.
